

Please do not weaken the New Jersey Telephone Consumer Protection Act. My phone has virtually stopped ringing with the endless stream of sales calls it once received. I should have the right to choose NOT to receive calls of a certain nature on my own phone and New Jersey has seen to it that I have that freedom. That is MY right and not another companies or salesmans right....unless they want to pay my phone bill!